

CHARACTERISTICS OF USE

Please use dot stickers to select the three features you think are more most important.

Single (RS), Double Family Residential (RD), and Cluster Plan Development (CPD) Districts

Vote Here	1. Material restrictions or architectural standards to improve the aesthetic appearance of residential dwellings.
Vote Here	2. Requiring developers to provide common/environmental open spaces, recreational areas, or neighborhood parks for new subdivisions.
Vote Here	3. Landscaping requirements for businesses to better buffer and protect property values and visually separate businesses from residents.
Vote Here	4. Permitted uses other than traditional residential.
Vote Here	5. Landscaping requirements for an individual property.
Vote Here	6. Landscaping requirements for the subdivision to improve the aesthetic appearance of the larger development or community.
Vote Here	7. The size of residential lots which can influence the density of the neighborhood.
Vote Here	8. Increase connectivity, walkability, and bike-ability to other districts where people live, work, shop, and play.
Vote Here	9. Multi-modal bike and pedestrian trails, paths, and greenways between commercial, residential, and mixed-used areas.
Vote Here	10. Increased public transit infrastructure between commercial, residential, and mixed-use areas.

CHARACTERISTICS OF USE

Please use dot stickers to select the three features you think are more most important.

Multiple-Family Residential (RM) and Residential-Commercial Mixed Use (RCX) Districts

Vote Here	1. Material restrictions or architectural standards to improve the aesthetic appearance of multi-family residential.
Vote Here	2. Landscaping requirements to improve the aesthetic appearance of the developments entrance, signage, and street trees.
Vote Here	3. Landscaping requirements for businesses to better buffer and protect property values and visually separate businesses from residents.
Vote Here	4. Permitted uses other than residential.
Vote Here	5. Public or semi-public open space amenities such as play structures, sports courts, pool, clubhouse, etc.
Vote Here	6. The size of the property which can influence the size and density of the structure and neighborhood.

CHARACTERISTICS OF USE

Please use dot stickers to select the three features you think are more most important.

Residential and Agricultural (RA) and Family Agricultural (FA) Districts

Vote Here	1. Material restrictions or architectural standards to improve the aesthetic appearance of dwellings.
Vote Here	2. Preservation of agriculture land.
Vote Here	3. Development restrictions (i.e. building setbacks, heights, etc.)
Vote Here	4. Permitted uses other than residential and agriculture.
Vote Here	5. Landscaping requirements for an individual property.
Vote Here	6. The size of building site area which can influence the density.
Vote Here	7. The affordability of the housing.
Vote Here	8. The availability of bicycle and pedestrian amenities such as bike parking, wide multi-use trails, etc.
Vote Here	9. The regulation of secondary farm and ohana dwellings.
Vote Here	10. The regulation of accessory structures (barns, sheds, etc.)
Vote Here	11. Roadway standards (width, striping, signage, etc.)
Vote Here	12. Additional agriculture land to protect and buffer natural resources from other development zones.

CHARACTERISTICS OF USE

Please use dot stickers to select the three features you think are more most important.

Agricultural (A) and Intensive Agricultural (IA) Districts

Vote Here	1. Material restrictions or architectural standards to improve the aesthetic appearance of agricultural land.
Vote Here	2. Preservation of agriculture land.
Vote Here	3. Development restrictions (i.e. building setbacks, heights, etc.)
Vote Here	4. Permitted uses other than limited residential and agriculture.
Vote Here	5. Land stewardship requirements.
Vote Here	6. The size of building site area which can influence the density.
Vote Here	7. Buffers to adjacent development.
Vote Here	8. The regulation of secondary farm and ohana dwellings.
Vote Here	9. The regulation of accessory structures (barns, sheds, pools etc.)
Vote Here	10. Roadway standards (width, striping, signage, etc.)

CHARACTERISTICS OF USE

Please use dot stickers to select the three features you think are more most important.

Resort-Hotel (V) Districts

Vote Here	1. Material restrictions or architectural standards to improve the aesthetic appearance of development.
Vote Here	2. Landscaping requirements to improve the aesthetic appearance of the developments entrance, signage, and street trees.
Vote Here	3. Landscaping requirements for resorts and hotels to better buffer and visually separate from businesses and residents.
Vote Here	4. Permitted uses associated with resort-hotel development.
Vote Here	5. Public or semi-public open space amenities such as play structures, sports courts, pool, clubhouse, beach access, etc.
Vote Here	6. The size of the property which can influence the size and density of the structure and surrounding development.
Vote Here	7. Environmentally and socially sensitive development to limit impacts to local ecology and culture.

CHARACTERISTICS OF USE

Please use dot stickers to select the three features you think are more most important.

Neighborhood Commercial (CN), General Commercial (CG), and Village Commercial (CV) Districts

Vote Here	1. Material restrictions or architectural standards to improve the aesthetic appearance of development.
Vote Here	2. Landscaping requirements to improve the aesthetic appearance of the development and to separate businesses from residents.
Vote Here	3. Building sizes and setbacks, and lot and yard sizes.
Vote Here	4. Sign requirements which manage the size and quality of signage for the business.
Vote Here	5. The orientation of the building. This could influence parking locations, the business's entrance locations, etc.
Vote Here	6. Providing adequate parking facilities and the design of the parking lot.
Vote Here	7. The screening of storage, loading, and mechanical areas.
Vote Here	8. The ease of accessing and navigating the business's parking areas.

CHARACTERISTICS OF USE

Please use dot stickers to select the three features you think are more most important.

Industrial-Commercial Mixed (MCX), Limited Industrial (ML), and General Industrial (MG) Districts

Vote Here	1. Material restrictions or architectural standards to improve the aesthetic appearance of development.
Vote Here	2. Landscaping requirements to improve the aesthetic appearance of the developments entrance, signage, and street trees.
Vote Here	3. Landscaping requirements for the business to better buffer and protect property values and visually separate businesses from residents.
Vote Here	4. Permitted uses within the property.
Vote Here	5. Sign requirements which manage the size and quality of signage for the business.
Vote Here	6. The orientation of the building. This could influence parking locations, the business's entrance locations, etc.
Vote Here	7. Providing adequate parking facilities and the design of the parking lot.
Vote Here	8. Adequately managing stormwater drainage within the site to mitigate any impacts on adjacent or nearby properties.
Vote Here	9. Access to public transit infrastructure between industrial, commercial, residential, and mixed-use areas.

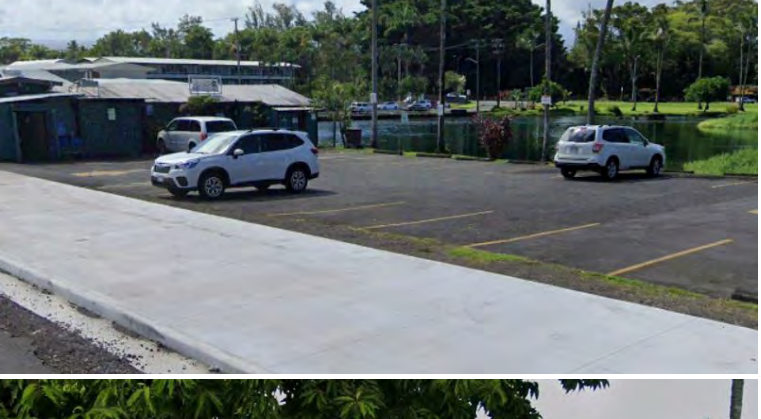

CHARACTERISTICS OF USE

Please use dot stickers to select the three features you think are more most important.

Open (O) Districts

Vote Here	1. Material restrictions or architectural standards to improve the aesthetic appearance of open districts.
Vote Here	2. General landscaping requirements
Vote Here	3. Permitted uses surrounding the open district.
Vote Here	4. The effect of surrounding development on open districts.
Vote Here	5. Public access.
Vote Here	6. Permitted uses within the open district.
Vote Here	7. The availability of park-style amenities (shelters, picnic areas, playgrounds, etc.)
Vote Here	8. The availability of bicycle and pedestrian amenities such as bike parking, wide multi-use trails, etc.
Vote Here	9. Protection of natural resources and ecosystems.
Vote Here	10. Protection of historic and cultural resources.

CHARACTERISTICS OF USE

Please use dot stickers to select the three features you think are more most important.

Ohana Dwellings

Vote Here	1. Material restrictions or architectural standards to improve the aesthetic appearance of the ohana dwelling.
Vote Here	2. Permissible areas for construction of ohana dwelling units.
Vote Here	3. Ohana dwelling construction restrictions (height, size, site area)
Vote Here	4. Access to utility infrastructure.
Vote Here	5. Parking requirements.
Vote Here	6. Landscaping requirements surrounding the dwelling.
Vote Here	7. Permitted uses for ohana dwelling units.
Vote Here	8. Adequate fire protection.
Vote Here	9. Access to street and roadway networks.
Vote Here	10. The process for permitting an ohana dwelling.
Vote Here	11. Enforcing code requirements.
Vote Here	12. Impact on adjacent development.	